

Style Challenge 1

Alien Abduction!

You and your friend Kenton Clarkson were running late one night so you decide to take a shortcut home across some fields. Suddenly you see bright, flashing lights in the sky and a gleaming bullet shaped object zooms towards you and then stops, hovering above your heads. Without further ado you turn and run! By the time you reach home you are a quivering mess and you realise that your

TASK:

Recount the strange events that you have just experienced with Kenton to a member of your household.

You must:

- Use the verb 'to be'
- Use verbs in the past

Example:

We were in a bit of a rush because I had forgotten my bag and we had to go back for it. I am not really sure what happened next.
